N. Luzon spared the worst

Waterway squatters can't return

By Joseph K. Uy

Thousands of families living in shanty towns along waterways and rivers have found it difficult to return to their homes since a typhoon named 'Daisy' has obliterated much of the infrastructure in the region. The typhoon, which hit the Philippines last night, has caused widespread damage and flooding across the country. In the north, the situation is particularly dire, with many families still displaced and their homes in ruins. The government has been slow to respond, leading to frustration among the affected population.

But new storm may suck back 'Pepeng'

By Wilfredo Dizon, Jr. and General Loo

Residents of Baguio City in northern Luzon are still reeling from the damage caused by the typhoon named 'Daisy'. The city, which was spared the worst of the storm's impact, is now facing a new threat as another storm, 'Pepeng', is expected to hit the region. The government has been slow to respond, leading to frustration among the affected population. The situation is particularly dire in the north, where many families are still displaced and their homes in ruins.

State of national calamity ad hoc gov't response

By Dennis R. Reyes
The state of national calamity has been declared, but the government's response has been ad hoc and uncoordinated. The affected population is still in need of assistance, and the government has been slow to respond. The situation is particularly dire in the north, where many families are still displaced and their homes in ruins.

Senate transfer to Film Center backed

By Jack
Leynes

SENATE SENATOR JOSE ALLEN DE VERA has proposed a bill to transfer the Senate from its current location in the old Legislative Building to the new Film Center in the heart of Manila.

De Vera said the move would save the government millions of pesos in rent and maintenance costs. He also said the new location would be more convenient for senators and their constituents.

The bill, which is still in the early stages of discussion, would also provide for the construction of a new Senate building in the Film Center. De Vera said the new building would be a modern, state-of-the-art facility that would be a fitting home for the Senate.

De Vera said the move would also help to revitalize the Film Center, which has been largely abandoned since the Senate moved there in 1987. He said the new building would be a landmark structure that would attract tourists and investors to the area.

The bill is expected to be passed by the Senate in the near future. De Vera said he is confident that the Senate will support the move to the Film Center. He said the move would be a significant step towards the modernization of the Senate.

De Vera said the move would also help to improve the Senate's image and make it more accessible to the public. He said the new building would be a more open and transparent institution that would be more responsive to the needs of its constituents.

De Vera said the move would also help to reduce the Senate's carbon footprint and make it more environmentally friendly. He said the new building would be a green building that would be a model for other government buildings.

State of nat'l calamity ad hoc gov't response

MANILA, Sept. 1 (AP) — The state of national calamity declared by President Fidel V. Ramos on Sunday has triggered a series of government actions, including the suspension of classes in schools and the closure of government offices.

The declaration of a state of national calamity is a rare event in the Philippines, typically reserved for major disasters such as typhoons, earthquakes, or floods. It allows the government to take emergency measures, such as the suspension of classes and the closure of government offices, to ensure the safety and well-being of the population.

The declaration also triggers the activation of the National Disaster Response Fund (NDRF) and the National Disaster Response Team (NDRT), which are responsible for coordinating relief efforts and providing assistance to affected areas.

The government has also announced that it will provide financial assistance to affected areas, including the distribution of food, medicine, and other essential supplies. The government has also announced that it will provide financial assistance to affected areas, including the distribution of food, medicine, and other essential supplies.

Indonesians tag 'unlucky' president for deadly quake

Hopes dim for 4,000 buried under rubble

(AP) — In the wake of the deadly earthquake that struck Sumatra last week, Indonesians are tagging President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono as "unlucky" for being in the area at the time of the disaster.

Figure 1 is a line graph titled "Percentage of respondents who believe that the U.S. should take action to reduce global warming, by age group." The x-axis represents age groups: 18-29, 30-49, 50-69, and 70+. The y-axis represents the percentage of respondents, ranging from 0 to 100. The graph shows a clear upward trend, with the percentage of respondents who believe the U.S. should take action increasing significantly with age. The 70+ age group has the highest percentage, at approximately 85%.

Pacman enters punishing last six weeks of training

By Peter D. Miller

Los Angeles (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers are in the midst of a punishing six-week training camp, a period of intense preparation for the upcoming season. The team, led by manager Tom Lasorda, is focused on getting the players in top form for the start of the season. The camp includes a variety of drills, including batting practice, fielding exercises, and conditioning workouts. The players are expected to be in excellent shape by the time the season begins.

Little holiday cheer for retailers, other businesses

Hotels, resorts empty as bankruptcies seen to climb

By [Name] and [Name]

The holiday season, which is supposed to be a time of joy and celebration, is instead a time of gloom and despair for many businesses. Retailers are struggling to make sales, and hotels and resorts are empty. The reason is simple: people are worried about the economy and their own financial future. Many are staying home, and those who do go out are spending less. This has led to a sharp decline in sales for many businesses, and some are even facing bankruptcy. ## Despite recovery, employers aren't ready to hire

By [Name]

Despite the fact that the economy is showing signs of recovery, employers are not ready to hire. This is because they are still worried about the future of the economy and their own business. They are waiting to see if the recovery is real and if it will last. Until then, they are not willing to take the risk of hiring new employees. This has led to a situation where there are many people looking for work, but few jobs are available. This is a problem for the economy and for the people who are looking for work.

The 2009 holiday season is expected to be one of the worst in decades.

U.S. stocks drop, corporate bonds may feel the heat

By [Name]

U.S. stocks dropped sharply today, and corporate bonds may feel the heat. This is because investors are worried about the economy and the possibility of a recession. They are selling their stocks and bonds, which has led to a decline in prices. This is a problem for the economy and for the people who own these investments. They are losing money, and this is making them even more worried about the future.
